

Musical "Shorts"

A workshop based on the idea of the 10 Minute Musical will be offered at the Markay Cultural Arts Center in Jackson beginning June 5th 2017. In the first week New York theatre artist Pippin Parker will guide workshop participants in creating original scripts for short musicals. The workshop will continue an additional two weeks to provide participants the opportunity to stage and perform their original works at the Markay on June 22nd at 7 pm. This workshop is supported by a grant from the Imagine Arts Endowment through the University of Rio Grande incurring no cost to participants.

Pippin Parker is Professor of Professional Practice at The New School College of Performing Arts in New York City. He is credited as director and dramaturge for George Packer's Betrayed and director for the premiere of Knickerbocker by Jonathan Marc Sherman. His playwriting credits include Anesthesia, Assisted Living, and numerous one-acts published by Playscripts, Inc.

The workshop is open to all interested young adults ages 12 to 25 however registration is limited. Please, submit application forms as soon as possible. Workshop times: June 5th – 8th, 9am – 12pm; June 15th – 18th, 9am – 12pm; June 22nd – 25th, 9am – 12pm; Performance: June 22nd at 7pm.
